

REMEMBRANCE PARADE

Sunday 12th November 2017

Remembrance Day is always a very poignant day for all Service and Ex Service men and women who have served Queen and Country.

The Parade in Whittlesey will leave the Ivy Leaf at 2.00pm and march to the memorial on Queen Street for a Service of Remembrance, followed by a Church Service at St Mary's Church.

The Royal British Legion and Whittlesey Town Council welcome everyone to attend the Parade and Service. If you wish to take part in the parade please ensure you are at the Ivy Leaf for 1.15.

For further information, please contact either Ray Thrower on 07850 680785, Judy Darby on 07724 081024 or the Town Clerk - Sue Piergianni on 01733 351296.
